Germany Virtually Says: Make England Be Good or Down Go American Ships

SOLDIERS OF THE KAISER CLEAR EAST PRUSSIA OF ENEMY; NOW INVADERS

BERLIN, FEB. 15.—THE GERMANS HAVE ROLLED THE RUSSIANS BACK FROM THE VICINITY OF LYCK AND JOHANNESBURG, CLEARING EAST PRUSSIA OF THE ENEMY AND INVADING RUSSIAN TERRITORY NEARLY TO GRAVEJO, ON THE ROAD TO OSSOWIEC, WHERE A FIERCE ASSAULT IS NOW PROGRESSING.

NORTH OF SUWALKI, THE GERMANS PENETRATED RUSSIAN TERRITORY. A BATTLE IS DEVELOPING IN THE REGION FROM WHICH THE GERMANS WERE FORCED TO RETIRE MONTHS AGO. A FAVORABLE OUTCOME OF THE CONFLICT AROUND OSSOWIEC WOULD ALLOW THE GERMANS TO STRIKE AT THE REAR OF THE RUSSIANS DEFENDING WARSAW.

WHILE SOME GERMAN NEWSPAPERS CONTINUE TO SHOW IRRITATION OVER THE ATTITUDE OF THE UNITED STATES, OFFICIAL UTTERANCES ARE TENDING TO CURB THEM. THE GOVERNMENT IS CONFIDENT THAT AN UNDERSTANDING WITH THE UNITED STATES REGARDING SHIPPING WILL BE ESTABLISHED. THE GERMAN ANSWER TO THE UNITED STATES' NOTE IS EXPECTED TO BE FILED TOMORROW. MUCH DEPENDS UPON THE DISPOSITION OF THE WILHELMINA'S CARGO.

RUSSIAN SETBACK IN E. PRUSSIA OFFSET IN THE CARPATHIAN REGION

PETROGRAD, FEB. 15.—ADMITTING ANOTHER GERMAN INVASION OF RUSSIA ALONG A 100-MILE FRONT EXTENDING FROM THE NIEMEN TO GRAVEJO, THE RUSSIANS CLAIM TO HAVE CHECKED THE GERMANS ADVANCING FROM LYNCH AND INFLICTED HEAVY LOSSES. RUSSIAN SUCCESSES IN THE CARPATHIANS MORE THAN OFFSET THE GERMAN GAINS AT THE NORTH. THE AUSTRO-GERMAN ARMIES LOST OVER 13,000 PRISONERS WHEN DEFEATED. IN THEIR ATTEMPT TO RELIEVE PRZEMYSL THEY WERE DEFEATED AT SMOLNIK AND HURLED BACK.

THERE ARE NO IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS IN BUKOWINA. THE RUSSIANS ARE HOLDING THE NEW POSITIONS ASSUMED THERE.

SERENADERS GREET LIBERAL COMMODORE

ILLUMINATION OF ESPLANADE
BURGOYNE FOLLOWED BY VISIT OF CITIZENS TO HOME OF THE GIVER.

In conformity with the prediction made in Saturday's issue of the Daily News, the Esplanade Burgoyne was lighted Saturday night. The illumination of the many scores of electric lamps mounted in clusters on iron posts about 100 feet apart along the esplanade, from where it begins at Orange avenue to the concrete bridge, made a very pretty picture indeed. Daytona may well be proud of its second-to-none "white way," and every well-meaning citizen is grateful to Commodore Burgoyne for adding to an already beautiful locality another attraction so appropriate and costly.

Shortly after the lights were turned on, a delegation of citizens, which included a number of the municipal officials, headed by Saracina's Royal Italian band (another delightful amusement feature provided for the city by the "white way" donor), marched from the kiosk on Beach street to the commodore's residence and serenaded him. Sincerely appreciative of this act of thoughtfulness on the part of his fellow citizens, Commodore Burgoyne invited the entire party inside, where they were almost overwhelmed with the lavish hospitality for which their host is justly famed.

The Esplanade Burgoyne will be lighted regularly each night hereafter.

STOLEN BICYCLE IS RECOVERED

WHEEL WAS ABANDONED ON EM-MET STREET AFTER REWARD
FOR RETURN WAS PUBLISHED IN DAILY NEWS.

Francis Mills, a youngster of 12, had his bicycle stolen from the basement of the school house Friday morning just before recess. A thorough search all Friday afternoon failed to locate the wheel and Francis went to bed that night feeling worse than some would feel by losing a fortune in Wall street. The sorry part of it all was, Francis bought the wheel new only the day before and on the installment plan at that. On the following day, however, E. J. Mills, father of the boy, caused an ad to be inserted in the Daily News offering a reward of $5 for the return of the bicycle. Shortly after the paper made its appearance in the afternoon, Francis was notified that his wheel was lying along the roadside on Emmet street, where he later found it in apparent good condition.

It is presumed that the bicycle was taken by some school boy, but being frightened by a threat of the principal to expel the culprit if discovered with the wheel in his possession, and the subsequent offer of a reward in the columns of the News, served to bring about the abandonment of the bicycle as above stated.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Tyler came to Daytona Sunday and will be here for a few days with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Churchill, at the Merritt hotel on Magnolia avenue.

GERMANY PROPOSES TO BACK-PEDAL IF BRITAIN WILL LET FOOD ALONE

WASHINGTON, FEB. 15.—GERMANY, IN A NOTE SUBMITTED TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT THROUGH THE GERMAN AMBASSADOR, INDICATES THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT'S WILLINGNESS TO RECEDE FROM ITS ANNOUNCED POLICY OF ATTACKING BRITISH MERCHANTMEN, IF GREAT BRITAIN WILL CEASE ITS INTERFERENCE WITH SHIPMENTS OF FOOD STUFFS INTENDED FOR THE NON-COMBATANT POPULATION OF GERMANY.

THE NOTE ASSERTS THAT THE WAR-ZONE PROCLAMATION WAS A RETALIATORY MEASURE ADOPTED AS THE RESULT OF ENGLAND'S DEPARTURE FROM THE RULES OF INTERNATIONAL LAW BY SEEKING TO INJURE GERMANY'S CIVIL POPULATION.

REFERRING TO THE USE OF NEUTRAL FLAGS BY BRITISH MERCHANT VESSELS, THE UNITED STATES WAS AGAIN WARNED THAT SHIPS BEARING ITS FLAG SHOULD FOLLOW A COURSE AROUND THE NORTH OF SCOTLAND.

THE NOTE WAS NOT A FORMAL ANSWER TO THE PROTESTS REGISTERED BY THIS GOVERNMENT.

THE UNITED STATES IS WARNED THAT IF IT WANTS TO PROTECT AMERICAN SHIPS FROM ATTACKS BY GERMAN SUBMARINES, IMMUNITY CAN ONLY BE GAINED BY BRINGING SUCH PRESSURE TO BEAR ON GREAT BRITAIN THAT THE LATTER WILL PERMIT FOODSTUFFS TO BE SHIPPED IN NEUTRAL VESSELS TO GERMANY WITHOUT SEIZURE. TO BE PLAIN, IF GREAT BRITAIN DOES NOT MODIFY ITS POSITION, GERMANY WILL ENFORCE THE WAR-ZONE ORDER AFTER FEBRUARY 18TH WITH ALL THE POWERS SHE CAN MUSTER.

IT IS INTIMATED THAT GERMANY WILL DISREGARD THE UNITED STATES' DEMAND THAT GERMAN WAR VESSELS VISIT AND SEARCH MERCHANT VESSELS BEFORE MAKING ATTACKS.

TURK-GREEK RELATIONS GREATLY STRAINED.

ATHENS, Feb. 15.—A news dispatch says the Greek minister has left Constantinople for Athens, although the legation at the Turkish capital is still open. It is believed that diplomatic relations between the two countries will soon be sundered.

GERMANS MAKE GAIN IN FLANDERS.

BERLIN, Feb. 15 (Official).—German troops in Flanders have captured the position of the enemy along a front over a half-mile in length near Stloi, and held it despite desperate counter attacks. A French attack southwest of Labassee was repulsed.

BANDITS BUSY IN NATIONAL CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Two masked men early today robbed Night Cashier Haggerty at the street railway barns. The robbers secured $2,000 and a bundle of tickets, and made their escape.

The annual Valentine social function of Hotel Windsor this year was held Saturday evening. The hotel parlors were tastily decorated in keeping with the day, and late in the evening refreshments were served. Rum was played and the prize winners were Mrs. H. H. Windsor, of Chicago, and G. M. Bostwick, of Schenectady. The special holiday dinner was served Sunday evening, and the menus were dainty valentine souvenirs of the occasion.

Written Especially for the Daily News

By DR. CHARLES FREDERIC GOSS

Author "Redemption of David Corson"

A southern watch repairer received a most upsetting jolt the other day when an old colored brother brought a couple of clock hands into his shop and asked him to repair them.

"There is nothing the matter with these hands," the astonished jeweler affirmed, after giving them a cursory examination.

"I know there is," the colored man insisted, "cause that clock aint kep no kind of time for the last six months and more."

"Why didn't you bring the clock instead of the hands, then?" the jeweler fretfully asked.

"Kase I knowed you would jest tinker wid de works an' run me up a big bill I couldn't pay! It's de hands and not de clock, dat's wrong!"

There is at least one class of readers that will be sure to appreciate this story. Every doctor in the world has had innumerable patients as foolish as this darkey. They want him to cure their hands or their feet; their arms or their legs, when the trouble is centered in their hearts; or their stomachs, or some other vital organ.

Perhaps it might be well for domestic and business concerns in financial difficulties to ponder for a moment over this tale. What they are trying to do is to cure their shaky establishments by reorganization or piecemeal economies, when the trouble is in the very vitals of the institutions themselves. It is either idleness or extravagance or dishonesty that is to pay. It is in the "works" and not the "hands" that the secret disturbance must be sought for. A superficial treatment will not do. The disease demands heroic measures.

And, now, if a preacher should happen to have gotten hold of this story while writing his Sunday sermon, couldn't he have drawn a stirring lesson from it? How full the world is of people who want to be cured of their moral and spiritual disorders by purely superficial methods, when the source of their misery is absolutely interior and central. It is the heart, the moral nature, the soul itself, that needs repairing.

Not only is this the pivotal point in the philosophy of the Christian religion, but of every other system of thought, which has influenced human life profoundly.

Listen to the great religious classic of the Hindu faith: "If one man conquers a thousand men in battle and another conquers himself, he is the greater conqueror of the two." "Mules are good, if tamed and noble, and so are Hindu horses and elephants with long tasks; but he who tames himself is better still. For, with those animals does no man reach the untrodden country (Nirvana), where a tamed man goes on a tamed animal, viz., himself."

The man who goes to God to be repaired must take the "works" and not the instruments that merely register their operation. It will do us no good to wash our hands, unless our hearts are cleansed.

more or less asserted merit. There are decent ways of making known to the public such events, and these people should be limited to the decent ways instead of making this beautiful country into a sideshow circus yard or a Coney Island.

Such noises may be pleasing to rowdies and hoodlums, but rowdies and hoodlums are not the class who buy land, build houses and beautify property and contribute to the attractiveness of this beautiful community. Every such abuse tends to drive away the class of people who build up any community and make it a desirable place for people of cultivation to live in.

HELP OF NOTED WOMEN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The wives and daughters of Democracy attended the Dolly Madison breakfast this morning, given under the auspices of the Woman's National Democratic League, of which Mrs. William A. Cullop, wife of the representative from Indiana, is president.

Among the noted democratic women who attended were Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, wife of the vice-president, Mrs. Champ Clark, wife of the speaker, Miss Genevieve Clark, and cabinet and congressional women of democratic persuasion.

Poet Laureate.

A laureate was originally a purely university title, bestowed upon such masters of arts as had exhibited skill in the making of Latin verses, and it had nothing to do with the civil authority, or royal favor. The first "poet laureate," in the modern sense, was Ben Jonson.

GRAHAM THOMPSON

Lightship No. 4

By M. QUAD

Copyright, 1914, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate

One day thirty years ago it was reported to the Trinity board, which has charge of all lights on the coast or Great Britain, that a shoal had made in the English channel about nine miles due east of the Lizard. At the spot indicated there had been thirty fathoms of water ever since a British ship went to sea, and the board, of course, argued that there had been a mistake. It was a fishing craft which had reported the shoal and found only fourteen feet of water over it, and a craft was sent out at once to make an official investigation. What had happened was this: It was a bowler strewn bottom, and two or three old wrecks had drifted together and piled up on each other until a dangerous obstruction had been formed. It was as if a great rock had been heaved up from the bottom, and the board must guard against the danger without delay.

Thirty years ago the diver's dress was not what it is today, nor could men handle explosives under water as they can now. After two or three vain attempts to clear away the wrecks the work was left for a storm to accomplish, and meanwhile lightship No. 4, under Captain Crox, was moved around from Mounts Bay and anchored near the spot and notice given to mariners.

That night it was the captain's watch from 8 till midnight. A gale had come up. It had come 10 o'clock when a sudden hail reached the light ship. The captain was aft and his mate forward, but he knew at once that the hail came from seaward. It was not so dark but that one could see a ship 300 feet away, even though she had no lights aboard.

As soon as a port fire was ignited the sea was lit up for hundreds of feet around in a ghastly way, and both men looked for the craft they supposed to be near by. They looked in vain till the signal was nearly finished. Then a ship's yawl, drifting right up in the teeth of the gale, hove into sight. She was without a mast or sail or oars, and the only figure in her sat in the stern sheets, and his arms and legs were bound around with ropes.

The man was bareheaded and dressed as a landsman, and as he drove past within twenty feet of the raft they had a look square into his eyes, and the agony on his face made them shudder. They started to throw him a rope, but as the coil swung into the air they remembered that, being bound, he could make no use of it. The yawl and the man went straight to windward and in a couple of minutes were out of sight, and the men found themselves all-afire. Captain Crox was full of indignation over the crime of sending a man adrift in that manner and of pity for the victim, when his mate touched him on the arm and shouted in his ear:

"If I was ashore, captain, all the money in England would not bribe me to set foot on this deck again."

"What's the matter with you?" was called in reply. "It's only a bit of shore villainy that we must report."

"It's nothing that's happened ashore, sir. Did you take notice that the craft was driving right in the teeth of the gale? It wasn't a live man in that boat. She was going to windward with a ghost, and I'd give the bit I have in the bunk if I'd not seen it."

It was agreed between them that nothing be said to the other watch when they turned out, and they went on duty without knowing or suspecting that anything out of the way had happened.

While carrying the thing out with pretended indifference, Captain Crox was, as a matter of fact, pretty thoroughly upset over it and on turning in found he could not go to sleep. He had been lying on his bunk and turning the thing over in his mind for an hour or so and the gale was still howling and the lightship bounding about when he realized from the movement of the watch that they had been hailed. He was out of his bunk and on deck just as one of them lighted a port fire, and you can judge his feelings when he saw the former scene repeated. There were the yawl and

INSPECTION OF BALL PARK MADE SUNDAY

SPECIAL CAR CARRIED MEMBERS OF DAYTONA ATHLETIC ASSO-CIATION, CITY COUNCIL, BOARD OF TRADE AND OTHERS.

A special car was run over the Central of Florida railway yesterday morning to permit of an inspection of the road's extension north of the Nautilus casino and of the new baseball park, by members of the Daytona Athletic association, city council, board of trade and others who have at heart the welfare of Daytona and her sister municipalities, Daytona Beach and Seabreeze.

As has been previously announced in the Daily News, the invitation was extended by President Michael Sholtz, and at 10:30 the special car left the city hall enroute to the park, occupied by the following gentlemen: Jerome
D. Maley, Joe B. Garrison, Dr. John
E. Morrissey, R. L. Smith, Oscar
Michael, Dr. G. A. Klock and Michael Sholtz, all of whom are members of the association. Others were Benford Deacon, C. H. Lane, William Jackson, T. O. Milton, Isaac Humphreys, Chas. E. Gardiner, John Maley, Lew. Smith, G. W. Balch, David
Sholtz, H. E. Burdick, R. E. Stevens, Chris. Gougarty, F. N. Niver and representatives of the press.

D. J. Kelly acted as motorman on the special and Fred Niver assumed the role of conductor. As soon as the car started, the latter jumped to his feet and asked for fares, but when he tried to collect two fares from Officer Milton, he promptly lost his job. However, at the end of the run the register showed $41 cash fares and five transfers with less than 30 passengers in the car. As a matter of fact there were no fares collected but Fred thought the register ought to show up well since he was "playing" conductor.

The party was met at the entrance to the ball park by Leon D. Brooks, manager of the association, and escorted to the grand stand where re-

SEABREEZE AND DAYTONA BEACH

freshments were served while everybody present inspected the whole "works." And if any reader of the Daily News doesn't believe the Daytona Athletic association has worked wonders out there on the peninsula all he has to do is go and look the ground over to be convinced. Realizing the original condition of the ground: its tangled mass of scrub palmettos growing thicker than the hair on a dog, one cannot imagine how it could be possible to tear up by the roots this underbrush, clear off and grade to a perfect level the rolling country in the short space of a few weeks' time. And this is not one-half of the work that has actually been accomplished by men and mules. The ball park occupies four and one-half acres of land, completely enclosed by a metal fence some seven or eight feet high. At the main entrance to the grounds is a neat little building to be used as an office and ticket booth. To the right of this is a good sized building fitted up as a club house for the players. It contains hot and cold shower baths, rubbing tables, lockers, toilets and in fact everything in the way of equipment necessary for the comfort and convenience of the men who hope to carry off the 1915 baseball pennant.

Passing on into the grounds you mount the bleachers, the grand stand and then some more bleachers. From this elevation one can survey the entire grounds with not the slightest obstacle to obstruct the view.
The diamond, when ready for play,
will consist of marl, thoroughly rolled,
and finished off with a top dressing of clay, all of which has been done

according to the personal directions of Manager Elbert of the Brooklyn Superbas. Automobiles can be parked inside the grounds as well as outside.
A hard-surfaced runway, leading under the bleachers and grand stand, has been provided so that drivers can park their cars in the northwest section of the enclosure and witness play without leaving their seats. A press box has also been provided by the management.

Upon the return trip of the special,
a stop was made at the beautiful little coppula club house of the Daytona Athletic club, situated on a bluff overlooking the ocean about midway between the Nautilus casino and ball park. Here Leon D. Brooks again made himself popular by extending to the party an invitation to try their luck at trap shooting. The trap is located just north of the club house and the gunner stands at any one of the five stations which are 16 yards from the trap. At the word "ready," the trap is sprung and a clay pigeon sails forth to be hit or missed by the man behind the gun. It was generally missed by a majority of those who tried their marksmanship yesterday.

Officer Milton, however, made a mess
out of two, as did also Jerome Maley, Dr. G. A. Klock, and R. E. Stevens.
Returning to Daytona, Jerome Maley entertained the party with a brief history of his wonderful quail dog. Nobody disputed his assertions concerning what the dog was capable of doing until he remarked that he believed the canine could jump over the top of the Central of Florida special which they were riding on.
At this juncture everybody ducked for fear of being hit on the head, and the car came to a stop for the passengers to alight, each and all thanking President Sholtz for the outing and congratulating him upon the success of his undertakings.

furnished house let. Try a want ad in

INDIANA DAY TO BE NEXT WEDNESDAY

CITIZENS OF THE HOOSIER
STATE WILL HOLD REUNION
AT SILVER BEACH LODGE ON OCEAN BEACH.

Next Wednesday, February 17th, will be Indiana day, and the citizens of the Hoosier state will celebrate it with a reunion at Silver Beach lodge on the ocean beach, south of the Breakers hotel.

The reunion is to be an all-day affair, with a basket picnic and all the Indiana people in Daytona, Daytona Beach and Seabreeze are invited and urged to attend the reunion, bringing with them baskets of good things to eat at the picnic dinner.
The citizens of a number of states are now holding annual reunions, and that of Indiana should be one of the best attended as there are many Indiana people in this city and the peninsula towns during the winter season.

Birds.

The earliest birdlike creature,
known as the "pterodactyl," away back in the mesozoic period, was a flying reptile, batlike, and with a stretch of wing of about eight feet. It was very late, geologically speaking, before true birds—birds that sang—came upon the stage.

ENTERTAINED COMPANIONS WITH A VALENTINE PARTY

Miss Erma Wetmore, the young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wetmore, of 318 South Ridgewood avenue, entertained 18 of her girl friends and companions at her home Saturday afternoon from 2:00 to 5:00 o'clock at a Valentine party.

The hostess and her guests formed a very charming picture as they played about the residence and grounds, and they evidently had a most delightful time at games and other forms of amusement until summoned to partake of the refreshments awaiting them in the dining room where the table had been attractively decorated with appropriate emblems of St. Valentine's day, red hearts covering the snowy cloth. A beautiful bouquet of red roses formed the centerpiece. There were Valentine place cards and the souvenirs consisted of little baskets of red candy. Red stick candy was also in evidence. Needless to say that the attractive table and the good things it bore were an important feature of the entertainment, heartily appreciated by the young people.

A Legacy.

"Johnston has inherited a wonderful collection of art works, antiques and bric-a-brac." "From an ancestor who was a connoisseur, I presume." "Not exactly. From an uncle who was a pawnbroker."

A Difference.

Does the world owe you a living? Or do you owe it a life?

ENTERTAINED IN HONOR OF VISITING NEPHEW

Everett Pennington, of Spiceland, Ind., a nephew of Miss Martha E. Brown and Mrs. Fred Stones, of this city, is visiting them for a few weeks, and Thursday evening of last week a pleasant party was given in his honor at the latter's home on Bellevue, about 20 persons being present.

Owing to the proximity of St. Valentine's day, the house decorations were on this order, and the souvenirs were also appropriate to St. Valentine's day. Refreshments rounded out a most enjoyable social evening.

Mr. Pennington is making his first visit south, and like others coming to Daytona for the first time, is very much impressed with the beauty of the city and its surroundings. He is also delighted with the contrast in the weather with that prevailing at Spiceland when he left home.

Lemberg and Limburg.

There is but one Lemberg, in Austria-Hungary, the place in Galicia that was recently taken by the Russians. There is a Limburg in Germany, a Limburg in the Netherlands and a Limbourg in Belgium.

Australia's Possibilities.

Australia is capable of producing one billion bushels of wheat annually instead of about one hundred million bushels, as at present. Now only thirty thousand square miles of land are used in wheat-growing, but five hundred thousand square miles could be thus utilized.

MILITARY POST AIDS FARMING IN HAWAII

The army is a most important factor in the development of diversified farming in Hawaii. This branch of our government uses large quantities of corn, eggs, potatoes, poultry and other products, and the authorities are desirous of having the territory develop an independent source of food supply, as the possibilities of development along these lines are very great in these islands. Sudan grass, sorghum, legumes and other forage plants have already been planted by the department's experiment station in co-operation with the military post in order to furnish green feed for the horses.

Red and white Bermuda onion seed are doing well in Hawaii. Eight acres of onions yielded 32,210 pounds last year, not counting small onions of pickling size. Sugar cane and sweet corn have also made good yields.

Authorized.

The American Kennel club comes out strong against mutilated dogs; whereas, what said Herford? "Man loves the dog because he'll stay and listen to his jokes all day; the dog loves man because he shears his coat and clips his tail and ears."—Philadelphia Ledger.

"Made in the U. S. A."

Wild-Eyed Customer—"I want a quarter's worth of carbolic acid." Clerk—"This is a hardware store. But we have—er—a fine line of ropes, revolvers, and razors."—Yale Record.

Okeechobee Farms

Will yield big crops of corn, cane, cowpeas, velvet beans, rape, peanuts, kudzu, spineless cactus, besides raising Bermuda, Rhodes, Para, Natal and other grasses for hay and pasture. With all these crops available, cattle, sheep and hogs can have green food the year 'round.

Thousands of Acres of Our Land at the North End of Lake Okeechobee Are Now Ready for Cultivation

These lands do not need draining other than small ditches necessary on any farm. Make a trip to Okeechobee on the new division of the Florida East Coast Railway without delay, and see for yourself just what these lands are. Not that Okeechobee is now only a trifle over twelve hours' journey from Jacksonville.

Investigate This Wonderful Country While You Can Have a Choice of Locations for Your Farm

You will find it unexcelled for general farming, livestock and poultry raising, and for growing all kinds of vegetables common to Florida as well as the finest citrus fruit. This town and country will grow at an amazing rate during the next few years. We also have excellent land and town lots at CHULUOTA and KENANSVILLE—the former a fine lake section in Seminole County suited to fruit growing, trucking and general farming, and the latter a fertile pine land country in Osceola County especially adapted to stock raising, general farming and fruit growing. CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING FOR HAWAIIAN PINEAPPLE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 15. A marketing division to assist pineapple growers has been organized by the United States department of agriculture, experiment station, in the Hawaiian Islands. Prices which canners have been offering for pineapples are less than the cost of production.
The Hawaiian pineapple grower today has to expend from $12 to $15 per ton to produce his fruit, whereas the price offered by the canner ranges from $5 to $11 per ton for first-grade pineapples and one-half those prices for second-grade products. As a result the small grower is now seeking a market for his fruit in the United States. However, the business of shipping can hardly be carried on satisfactorily without organization and it is to help out in this connection that the new division has been organized, according to the latest report of the Hawaii experiment station.

It is also suggested in the report that better arrangements could be made if there were a branch of the marketing division in San Francisco, which should act as a central office for fresh pineapple shipments. This office could undoubtedly prevent the succession of late and flooded markets which has characterized the previous condition of pineapple shipments.

The same office could also do valuable service in handling other Hawaiian products, such as sweet potatoes, onions, bananas, lemons, coconuts and kukui nuts.
The last mentioned product is particularly valuable on account of its large oil content.

To Save Gas.

An excellent way to save gas is to remove the tip, insert a small piece of raw cotton in the pipe and replace the tip. This lessens the pressure and a more even and a softer light is obtained.

I. C. C. FREIGHT RATE HEARING COMMENCED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15. Public hearing on the freight rate increases proposed by railways west of the Missouri river were begun here today by the Interstate Commerce Commission or here today. The hearing marks the beginning in public of an important rate case, especially different from the recent eastern case, in that the western roads are not asking for a horizontal increase based upon traffic conditions and upon the movement of individual classes and commodities.

Some of the advances proposed approximate as much as 30 per cent, while others amount to only two or three per cent. On some kind of traffic increase have been proposed. It is understood the western roads have endeavored to revise their rates so as not to bear too hard on the general shipper.

All of the tariff submitted by the western roads have been suspended by the commission. Protests, particularly from the railroad commission of the western states, have been filed with the commission and concerted action by the state commissions will be taken in opposition to the increases.

Four days will be devoted to the presentation of evidence from respondents supporting in general their claims for increased rates, but not including evidence in support of increase of particular rates.

Beginning Monday, March 15, opportunity will be given for the presentation of evidence in rebuttal of such general testimony.

Good Luck.

good luck to be invited out to a dinner
where the mother still makes her own bread.—Detroit Free Press.

"CONNECTICUT DAY" 22ND OF FEBRUARY

OCCASION OF COMING TOGETHER
OF LOCAL CONNECTICUT PEOPLE CHANGED FROM 18TH OF MARCH.

Connecticut people in Daytona, Daytona Beach and Seabreeze will celebrate "Connecticut Day" on the anniversary of Washington's birth, the 22d of February, instead of on March 18th, the date first decided upon. The celebration will take place at the Nautilus casino, and, according to Secretary Benford Deacon of the board of trade, promises to be one of the bigger events among the numerous state days to be celebrated here this season.

COUPLE QUIETLY WEDDED AT METHODIST CHURCH PARSONAGE

Miss Lucella McFarlin and Horace P. Ater were quietly wedded Saturday afternoon in the First M. E. church parsonage on North Palmetto avenue, Rev. J. H. Elder, pastor of the church, officiating, and the only witnesses to the ceremony being Mrs. Elder and Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Fowler, of Delaware, Ohio, also Miss McFarlin's home. The ring service was used.

The bride arrived from Ohio by the afternoon train, Saturday, being met at the depot by the groom and Dr. and Mrs. Fowler, her friends and neighbors at Delaware, and shortly sought the M. E. church parsonage where the ceremony was performed.

Mr. Ater has been teaching in the public school at Blake since the Christmas holidays and will continue for the present to make his home in this city, residing with his bride at 19 Bellevue avenue.

THE TEUTONIC ALLIES HAVE CAPTURED THE TOWN OF RADAUZ, AND THE RUSSIANS ARE FLEEING EASTWARD. THE GERMANS USED HEAVY MORTARS, BUT THE HEAVY FRENCH ARTILLERY SHOWED ITS SUPERIORITY.

IN LORRAINE THE FRENCH DROVE THE ENEMY BACK TO THE VICINITY OF NORROY.

NO GERMAN PIRACY, SAYS CHURCHILL.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—In the house of commons this afternoon, Winston Churchill, first lord of the British admiralty, declared emphatically that "Germany will not be allowed to adopt a system of open piracy and murder, without active reprisals."

JOSHUA R. JONES' REMAINS SENT HOME FOR INTERMENT

The remains of Joshua R. Jones, whose death occurred at Ormond last Saturday morning, left on an early morning train, Sunday, for Philadelphia, where the funeral and interment will take place some time this week. Accompanying the body on the journey home are Mrs. Jones and several other members of the family who were spending the winter in this locality.

Mr. Jones was reputed to be a man of considerable means and was prominent in Philadelphia and vicinity. Disease of the heart was the cause of his death.

THE "TAKE-IT-EASY" METHOD DANGEROUS

How many business enterprises would succeed financially by following the "take-it-easy" policy? How long would they be able to keep their heads above water if no means of pushing ahead and broadening the scope of their activities were taken? What applies to the business enterprise, applies to the community. We either push ahead, or we lag behind and eventually are lost in the shuffle of the more progressive localities that are using every means in their power to expand.

Daytona and the surrounding territory must "boost" and "boost" hard to compete with the other wide awake cities that are reaching out after new residents, new visitors and new capital. We cannot afford to let communities with even fewer advantages than Daytona "beat us to it" in the matter of securing new blood that is the life of progress.

The Special Illustrated Edition of the Gazette-News, which is now in course of preparation, will form a means of reaching the very element needed in the development of this section. See that you are represented in it.

VALENTINE DAY WAS CELEBRATED AT NAUTILUS

Valentine day was appropriately observed at the Nautilus casino on Saturday evening, participated in by hundreds of tourists in this locality. Dancing seemed to be the leading attraction while bathing and other games detracted the attention of the crowd at intervals throughout the evening. The street railway did a record-breaking business from mid-day until late in the evening and the beach swarmed with people who took advantage of the delightfully warm weather.

15-MONTHS' OLD BABY MAYOR HAD BUSY HALF JUMPS, DIVES, SWIMS HOUR MONDAY MORNING

The town of Stuart, on the Florida First Coast, is said to have a most wonderful child in the infant daughter of Frank Coventry, proprietor of the Coventry hotel of Stuart.

This baby, it is claimed, could swim at the tender age of nine months, and today, at the age of 15 months, jumped from a dock nine feet above the water and swam a distance of 15 or 16 feet to reach her father who is waiting for her in the river.

Dr. S. W. Fowler, of Delaware, O., who is spending the winter in this city as usual, brings to the attention of the Daily News this interesting phenomenon, and Lucas, the "Land Man," the "Man who tells the truth," says he is personally acquainted with Mr. Coventry and vouches for the correctness of the above statement.

Municipal court was in session about one-half an hour this morning, during which short space of time Mayor Titus disposed of seven cases of various kinds.

Offender No. 1 was Bob McCracken, an African with a cracking good Irish (or it is Scotch) name. Bob loaded up Sunday with bad American whiskey to the extent of acquiring a drunk and disorderly disposition. He failed to appear in court, and the $5 cash bond he had posted with the colored officer who arrested him was forfeited.

C. C. Douglas, colored, was fined $5 and costs—$7 in all—for having been drunk and disorderly and for disturbing divine worship at a Midway church.

Barney Hunter and Walter Clifton let the motorcycle they were riding run too fast on Ridgewood avenue. Officer Milton saw them. The boys stated in court that they "speeded" only about 150 feet. His honor let them down with light fines. They Dorgan, driver of the Schmidt hotel "bus," was charged with blocking traffic on Beach street. A motorcycle, ridden by Floyd Blackman and a young lady, collided with the other vehicle, in front of Schmidt's hotel. Blackman claimed that the "bus" was on the wrong side of the street, but the testimony of a gentleman who witnessed the accident did not agree with the motorcyclist's statement. The mayor found it difficult to decide who was to blame, and dismissed the case.

The preparatory movements seemed to have been considerably accelerated by "joy water" on the inside—not inside the car, however.

Alfred Watts pleaded not guilty to the alleged offenses of "speeding" an automobile and with being under the influence of liquor while driving. An officer testified that Watts ran his car across one of the bridges at the rate of about 30 miles per hour, and the mayor imposed a fine of $5, plus $1 for costs. The intoxication charge was not sustained. Another witness stated that Watts had not drunk any whiskey or other alcoholic beverage. John Gartner was fined $5 and costs for indulging in "mischievous mischief." The charge grew out of Gartner's alleged preparations to go "joy diling" in another man's "joy wagon."

MASQUERADE BALL AT THE RIDGEWOOD HOTEL

MOST SUCCESSFUL AND ENJOY-

ABLE AFFAIR AT POPULAR HOS- TELRY—MANY OF THE GUESTS IN UNIQUE COSTUMES.

The masquerade ball at the Ridgewood, Saturday evening, was probably one of the most successful and unique affairs ever promoted by the management of the hotel for the pleasure of its guests. Each of the 175 dinner guests of the hotel donned a paper hat, turban, bonnet or other form of head-dress, which had been provided as favors, and wore it throughout the evening, greatly adding to the festivity of the affair.

Between 60 and 75 were masked and in costume, many of which were very elaborate, showing great skill and ingenuity in their construction. This rendered the task of judging the costumes a difficult one, and it was only after mature deliberation that the judges awarded the ladies' first prize to Miss Isabel Howard, of Monroe, N. Y., who was charming as a typical Dutch girl. To Miss Helen Stacey, of Stratford, Conn., as a Valentine girl, went the second prize. Sidney E. Kent, of Washington, D. C., in an elaborate Chinese mandarin's dress, and a complete hotel chef's outfit, was winner of the gentlemen's first prize, while Mr. McIntyre, of this city, in an elaborate Chinese mandarin's dress, won the second honors. The judges were A. C. Judd, of Waterbury, Conn.; Mrs. A. G. Southworth, of Brooklyn, and Truman Beckwith, of Providence.

Dancing was enjoyed by the guests, both in costume and in conventional evening dress, until about 11 o'clock, when delicious light refreshments were served. All in all, this year's Valentine ball at the Ridgewood ranks as one of the most enjoyable social events of the hotel season.

NEWS OF THE HOTELS

Dr. and Mrs. John A. Bargayne, of Columbus, Ohio, relatives of Commodore Bargayne of this city, are registered at the Ridgewood.

Saturday and Sunday's list of arrivals at the three big hotels on this side of the river, the Despland, Ridgewood and Prince George, were probably the largest of the present season.

One answer to the question of how to spend the afternoon is the fact that 14 automobiles filled with guests of the Despland, made trips to the beach, Ormond, New Smyrna and other points of interest Sunday.

The Saturday evening hop at the Despland was attended by one of the largest crowds of the season, and as usual, every guest of the hotel enjoyed every moment. The big ball room of the hotel was crowded throughout the evening, and the Despland orchestra was forced to respond to several encores.

Do you know that Iron Mountain, overlooking Mountain Lake, in Polk County, Florida, enjoys the distinction of being the highest point within sixty miles of the Atlantic coast between Key West and Northern New Jersey, a stretch of country more than one thousand miles long? It is nearly four hundred feet above sea level, with Mountain Lake a little less than two hundred feet below its crest. The lake has a shore line of over five miles, and all around the land slopes gradually and gracefully. The climate of this region is a perpetual delight.

The tract of land of which Mountain Lake is the center has been in the family of the president of the Mountain Lake Corporation for many years. It was withheld from sale with the view of ultimate development along unusual lines and as a solid body. This land is sixty miles from the Atlantic Ocean and about an equal distance from the Gulf of Mexico. Due east of Tampa, it is in the heart of the Lake Region, the ideal citrus section of the state. This part of Florida is remarkably comfortable in summer and notably free from cold in winter. It is served by the Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Air-Line Railways.

M. E. Gillett & Son, of Tampa, have charge of the planting and care of the groves. In selecting for this work the best known citrus fruit growers and nurserymen in the state the Mountain Lake Corporation insures not only the proper planting of the best citrus stock available, but also the proper care of the trees up to the time they are turned over in bearing to the purchasers.

It was under the direction and management of Mr. Gillett and his son that a similar development was brought to a successful conclusion at Lucerne Park, near Florence Villa, in Polk County. Here one hundred ten-acre groves were planted and brought into bearing. These one thousand acres of citrus fruit groves are a source of the greatest satisfaction to their owners and a credit to the state.

The entire tract of more than 2,500 acres is now under development. The plan adopted covers the planting and bringing into bearing of two thousand acres of grapefruit and orange groves, the building of a number of charming lake front and mountain side residences and the expenditure of approximately a quarter of a million dollars in roads, parks, a golf course and club house. The work is being done under the personal supervision of the best qualified persons in the country in grove making and landscaping. All the natural beauties of the property will be conserved without interfering with the wonderful economic possibilities.

Mr. Gillett and his son made a careful study of conditions at Mountain Lake and saw there the opportunity for an even more elaborate and successful development. Not only have they undertaken the planting and care of the two thousand acres, but they have assumed the selling agency for the properties. The Mountain Lake groves will be planted with the best quality of trees from Buckeye Nurseries.

That the artistic side of the development at Mountain Lake will be of the highest character is guaranteed in the engagement of Frederick Law Olmsted, a landscape architect of international reputation. He is of a family of landscape workers, his father's best known achievements having been Central Park, in New York City, and Biltmore Estate, near Asheville. In the latter his son was associated with him, and the younger Olmsted has to his credit many other notable landscape developments, among them being Roland Park, Baltimore, and Forest Hills Gardens, Long Island.

Mr. Olmsted has completed a study of Mountain Lake and vicinity and is now engaged in its landscaping. Of it he says: "Other places have good citrus lands, though none have better; other places have good climatic and health conditions, though none have better; other places have the same opportunities for the growth of tropical vegetation. But nowhere else in Florida are such outlooks to be had as from Iron Mountain, and nowhere else is a systematic effort being made to conserve and develop the landscape beauty of a tract to the fullest extent in connection with its economic development."

The Mountain Lake Corporation commands respect because of the standing of the gentlemen who compose it. Among the leading stockholders are the following:

FRANK S. WARDEN, president American Cyanamid Company, Niagara Falls, Ont.; president Alabama Power Company, Birmingham, Ala.
HUBERT E. GOODMAN, vice-president and general manager Goodman Manufacturing Company, electrical mining machinery, Chicago, Ill.

JAMES MITCHELL, president Alabama Traction, Light & Power Company, Ltd., New York and London.
M. E. GILLETT AND D. C. GILLETT, proprietors of Buckeye Nurseries and Gillett Lumber & Transportation Company, Tampa, Florida.

ELMER A. SPERRY, president Sperry Gyroscope Company, New York.
E. C. STUART, vice-president State Bank of Bartow, Bartow, Fla.; director Corumet Phosphate Company, Lakeland, Fla.
FREDERICK S. RUTZ, president Mountain Lake Corporation, Lake Wales, Fla.

A preliminary booklet, now ready for distribution, gives the plans much more in detail. Copy will be mailed on application and further particulars supplied upon request.

Nellie Bly's Experiences in Hungary

(Miss Nellie Bly, special correspondent in Austria for the International News service, continues her interesting experiences below.)

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Nov. 23.—We landed in Budapest this morning at ten, after an all-night ride from Mitrovitz. Much to my disappointment, Captain Michel announced at mid-day dinner Sunday we were not to be allowed on the Serbian firing line. No explanations.

We had been led to believe we were to see some hard fighting, but now my hopes were shattered. We were not even to visit at Semabatz, the last town to be taken, nor were we to go to Semlin, the town from which present operations are being directed against Belgrade. It is said in capturing Semabatz the invading army secured over one million in gold money, large and rich stores of materials, thousands of hogs and of oxen and of sheep.

Wonderful Loot.

I had seen in the loot brought to Mitrovitz from the houses of the Serbians the most wonderful and exquisite materials woven on handlooms. I had also seen embroideries and knitted and worked woolsens such as I never saw in my life. In New York they would command fabulous prices.

And the hand-wrought antique silver bracelets, chains and brooches made me wild with desire to see more of the handwork of these people.

So my disappointment was intense.

We were to return in two groups. I decided to be one of the first. I could have found much to interest me in Mitrovitz even, but as we can only go where our commanders allow, and as I could arouse no interest in my wishes, or inveigle anyone out of the warm coffee house, I decided to get to Budapest and the comforts of Mr. Geller's exquisite Hotel Astoria by the first train.

It was bitterly cold, with a brisk wind blowing. Even the mud had stiffened. We all remained in the coffee house to write letters, work and drink coffee. There is no wood to be brought, so work is impossible in the cold houses. There was grumbling on all sides about being taken to Zsolna, Hungary, where the Kriegs-pressequatur will now be located, as announced at the same time. A further interesting announcement was that no future leave of absence would be given anyone. This was especially hard on me, as I had requested permission to remain in Budapest and give Dr. MacDonald, of the American Red Cross Hospital, a chance to find out what was wrong with the right half of my anatomy. I still hope to have my application favorably answered.

I was in the midst of a letter when Mr. Herring came in. "Would you like to see some four hundred Serb prisoners?" he asked. "I should, indeed!" I replied, jumping up and grabbing my coat.

"They are in front of the coffee house being marched to the station," he explained. "Soldiers Like Farmers."

I ran, photographers and journalists after me. Not marching, but standing in line, half a block away, were about four hundred men, guarded by some dozen Hungarian soldiers and one mounted officer. Several officers stood in the street gazing idly at the prisoners.

I gasped with amazement. There was not a man in the entire lot with the look or appearance of a soldier. They looked like farmers.

They had no appearance of having been attired in a regulation uniform, with the exception of perhaps a dozen, who wore coats of a dull earthy brown, with a faint sprinkling of red like pepper. None of them had boots or shoes. About half had the usual Serbian sandal—an absurd contrivance for a man or soldier.

Many were bare-footed, bare-headed and almost bare-legged since they had what seemed to be trousers made out of coffee sacks.

They looked frozen and hungry, but not severely malicious or savage. They were undersized, thin men.

The photographers were anxious to have me stand by the prisoners while they photographed them. When I stepped beside them the prisoners looked at me curiously, then as if they discovered nothing unfriendly, they smiled wanly and saluted.

I heard frightened howling back of me. I turned. An old pompous officer was shouting like fury: "These prisoners are dangerous. I don't permit any one to go near them, man or woman."

He waved for me to step away. I am not supposed to understand German, so I simply smiled in his face. I thought I might be arrested, but I would take a chance. I did not see anything in the prisoners to fear.

Men Unable to Walk.

When the order was given for them to move on, the sight was pitiable. Many could only hobble along assisted on both sides. One bare-footed man could not walk at all. He tried, but he could not move his feet. A journalist from Vienna stepped forward, lifted the man like a child in his arms, and laid him in a wagon which stood near.

The officer nodded approval and commanded the driver to fall into line.

I don't speak the same language as that journalist, but words were not necessary. I walked up to him and held out my hand.

We shook hands and smiled understandingly at each other. In the dark I drove to the station. It was 5 o'clock. A crowd of soldiers hung about the door and the ticket office was jammed with soldiers, peasants, and police.

Every person buying a ticket must show his military permit to leave the town. Three soldiers picked up my three bags and pushed their way into the crowd.

The gendarme stopped me and asked for my military pass. I had none. It was with the commander in charge of our party. He was inclined to hold me, but his companion was more lenient, and when I asked where I could sit they finally let me pass.

In the restaurant I found some of our party. They were busy consuming goulash. The room was small and lit by lanterns hung on the wall. Numerous officers sat at the different small bare tables, also eating goulash and drinking beer. Small boys in much soiled, once white shirt fronts and absurdly long-tailed black coats were the waiters.

This was the first-class restaurant. I passed through the second class. It was packed with soldiers, standing and sitting by two long, bare tables, eating thick slices of black bread from the loaves from their knapsacks and drinking beer which a sloppy man was handing over a sloppy bar.

Herring, the clever German war correspondent, was at a table alone. He motioned for me to join him. George A. Schirmer, the Associated Press man, dropped into a chair opposite.

Like Eating Fire.

Herring was making faces over sausages soured in red pepper gravy. He followed its trail of fire with long, cooling draughts of beer.

With heroic courage Schirmer yelled, "Piacalo," to the small, dirty waiter, pointed dramatically to the quiet sausage in its red, no gravy bed, and tapped his broad chest imperiously.

That meant, "Bring me the same thing and bring it quick!" A Hungarian newspaper man, who is a perfect color dream, with big crow-black eyes and hair, and cream and roses complexion, and a military jacket of ashes of roses, much too tight for him, jumped up from a corner table and ran to me.

"You can't eat this. It's too hot," he said. "I will order goulash for you."

He disappeared in the direction of the small boy and the kitchen.

Miakish came in, followed by his bundle-bearing servants. These servants are extraordinary. They carry as much as a camel. When well-packed they are a shapeless mass of satchels, bags, rugs, guns, cooking pans and relies on two sturdy legs. They always stick in gateways and doors and must be shoved through. He is as good as two baggage men and a handtruck.

"Servus!" cried Miakish to me, clinking his heels, bending his body at the waist and raising his hand to his cap. I rose to my feet. I did not clink my heels—I find it difficult to make them whack loud. I raised my hand to my military cap. I said, "Servus!" Then I sat down. Roda Roda, the Vienna writer, pushed the door open suddenly and stood in surprised salute, hand to cap. He evidently did not expect to see so many of us.

PATRONS PRAISE THE PINK PAPER

DAILY NEWS VALENTINE EDITION WAS GREATLY APPRECIATED—CONTAINED 16 PAGES ADS AND READING MATTER.

Judging from the various compliments that have been heard on every side concerning the 16-page Valentine edition of the Daily News, published on Saturday, the extra effort was certainly appreciated by patrons of the paper in sufficient measure to repay the publishers for all that they did.

Detrick Lamade, editor and publisher of the Williamsport (Pa.) Grit, who is a guest at the Clarendon, took occasion to speak a few words of praise in commendation of Saturday's pink edition and to further congratulate the Daily News on the amount of advertising and good crisp reading matter found in every issue of the paper. In speaking to a representative of the News, Mr. Lamade said: "I have taken a great deal of comfort in reading the News since coming to the Clarendon, and find its telegraph service especially good for a small city daily. You carry an excellent line of advertising and the general make-up of the paper is beyond criticism."

The above coming from a man who has been through the newspaper mill from start to finish has a tendency to carry considerably more weight than if uttered by a man of no personal experience in the newspaper field. The Daily News has always tried to please its patrons and will continue to do so in future, and such words of praise as uttered by Editor

Lamade will act as incentive to increase such effort.

VALENTINE'S DAY CELEBRATED AT CLARENDON

A special menu and musical program was prepared for Valentine's day at Hotel Clarendon yesterday. An unusually attractive folder, with cover of red in which a heart was dyed-cut on the front page and showing through was a picture of Hotel Clarendon, contain both the menu and musical program. A big demand for the souvenir soon exhausted the supply.

Rousseau.

One is probably right in holding that Rousseau was the "Father of the French Revolution." Of course many things entered into the production of that mighty upheaval, but Rousseau's writings did their full share in preparing the minds of the French people for the great political and social storm.

FEBRUARY 14TH WAS DATE OF THE BIG FIRE

SIX YEARS AGO YESTERDAY MORNING HOTEL CLARENDON WAS REDUCED TO ASHES — NO LIVES WERE LOST.

Yesterday was the sixth anniversary of the destruction by fire of Hotel Clarendon. Two hundred and nine guests and 175 employees were suddenly deprived of their winter home and forced to flee for their lives from the ravishing flames. Fortunately no lives were lost.

The work of clearing the ruins to make way for the present building was commenced five years ago the 14th of February, and the present hotel was opened to the public on the date advertised, January 2, 1911.

Hotel Clarendon is constructed of re-enforced concrete and steel, and is the only season resort hotel in the south that is absolutely fire-proof. It has been built with the one idea, to provide safety for the guests beneath its roof. Hotel Clarendon enjoys the patronage of the wealthiest class of tourists and many of its guests enter the hotel on the opening date and remain until the doors are closed in early April. Several who are now at the hotel have been coming to Seabreeze every winter since before the fire. John D. Rockefeller, the Standard oil magnate, was a Clarendon patron last year and the year before, and many other prominent men like Mr. Rockefeller show their appreciation of a strictly fireproof hotel by stopping at Hotel Clarendon during the winter season.

CLARENDON REGISTER SHOWS DAILY INCREASE

Scores of tourists from all parts of the United States and Canada are daily flocking to the big fireproof building by the sea. Yesterday was the biggest day of the present season and the register showed a noticeable increase over last year for the same date. Late arrivals include Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Goldsborough, New York; Mr. and Mrs. L. Hess, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Keller and chauffeur, Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Coppin, New York; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. TOWN OF ORTONA RAPIDLY BUILDING

A NEW CITY BEING BUILT HALF WAY BETWEEN DAYTONA AND ORMOND BY CONNECTICUT
GENTLEMEN.

Visitors in Daytona and vicinity are very much interested in what is being done half way between this city and Ormond at Ortona, the new townsite being developed by the owners, E. A. Simpson and D. C. Pope, of Hartford, Conn. They are also astonished to learn that a few months ago this land was covered with palmettos and undesirable, while now there are houses built and more under way. A wharf, where several boats are in commission hauling shell, also a casino is to be completed this month which will contain a dance hall larger than the average ball room floor.

Surveyors, laborers and mule teams are clearing the land and grading streets, which are being shelled from river to ocean. These divide the property into large lots which have a frontage of 50 to 65 feet and are from 125 to 287 feet deep. One of the many advantages of Ortona is that it has 3,000 feet of river and ocean frontage, a very unusual amount for one property.

There are two artesian wells on the tract now supplying quantities of pure water, but still another large well is being installed in connection with a 20,000-gallon reservoir, piping, etc., which will give excellent water service and an abundant supply for every lot. It is an every-day question asked Mr. Pope, one of the owners, who is located on the property, having just moved into a new home built by Mr. Flanagan, one of Daytona's prominent builders, why such extensive improvements now. The answer received is to the effect that the winter will only be long enough to nicely get under headway. He will also advise you that if you will come around in 30 days' time you will be surprised still more, and if it is next year before you arrive on the grounds again, a new hotel equipped with all modern conveniences, electric light and telephone will be ready for your patronage, while neat cottages for the home lovers will be finished for inspection. Also that a regular boat service is to be maintained between Daytona, Ortona and Ormond which will be free to lot owners in the tract.

Mr. Simpson, who has been stopping at the Despland hotel ever since his arrival in the city, was interviewed just as he was leaving for California on a trip terminating in April. In answer to the question, what are you doing in Ortona? He answered, "All we can in the short space of time we have to work."

"Give us another year and we will convince you that Ortona will be one of the points of interest in and about Daytona."

"At present we are building houses, grading streets, dredging our channel, putting in our wharf, hauling shell to surface our streets, in fact, doing all the work we can with 50 men and a dozen mule teams."

He also stated that they had just started their pleasure boat running to carry any one wishing to spend a few pleasant hours on a boating trip, and at the same time inspect Ortona, all of which was absolutely free. "This is just to give the tourist and sojourner a chance to enjoy a boat ride, and see what we are doing at Ortona, the beginning of our city between the river and the sea," he said.

Mr. Simpson paid a compliment to Daytona before leaving, saying it never looked as pretty as it does this year. Also that Hartford was to Connecticut what Daytona was to Florida, the prettiest city in the state. The Ortona of Hartford was called "Bluefields," their high class subdivision of 627 restricted lots with a view equal to their Ortona here.

DEDICATION OF MAINE MEMORIAL AT ARLINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—At the dedication today of the Maine memorial in Arlington national cemetery, there will be addresses by President Wilson, Secretary Daniels, Rear Admiral Sigsbee, as well as a military and naval demonstration.

Today marks the anniversary of the day when the Maine went to the bottom of the harbor at Havana. The mainmast of the vessel, which is the most striking feature of the memorial, has been in position for several months, but the granite mausoleum, which forms its base, has just been completed.

The memorial has been erected in conformity with the act of congress and has been approved by the fine arts commission. It has cost about $55,000. The granite base of the mainmast of the Maine is about 14 feet high and 26 feet in diameter. It has the contour and effect of the turret of a battleship. The weight of the mast itself with the fighting top, is 22,460 pounds and one of the problems was to construct a base solid enough to support it. Its walls are of white granite from New Hampshire. The mast has been painted a dull gray to harmonize with the granite.

When lemons are hard, cover them with boiling water and stand them aside to cool. They will then appear fresh and full of juice. Neither will the juice seem in the least diluted by any water absorbed.

AMERICAN OKRA GROWS EIGHT FEET HIGH IN GUAM

An American variety of okra which has attained a height of from seven to eight feet has been grown on heavy clay soil in our little possession of Guam far out on the Pacific. This variety is called "White Velvet," and the department's experiment station in Guam expects much of this variety.

A great number of American vegetables have been found to grow easily in Guam, including cucumbers, lettuce, radishes and beans. Eggplant produces heavy yields of excellent quality. One variety introduced with success has been the "New York Improved Spineless." The pepper is also produced with the greatest ease and is much relished by the natives. For five years special attention has been given to growing the tomato in Guam, but until this year all efforts have failed. During the past season, however, a number of tomatoes were produced, which, although very small, were mild and savory and should prove prolific. Insect enemies have so far been very easily controlled in the case of practically all these vegetables.

YOUNG MAN FOUND

ROLL OF GREENBACKS

A young man from Ormond stepped into the grocery store of H. S. Miller on Friday and after making a purchase was about to leave when he spied a roll of greenbacks lying on the floor. He promptly made known his find to the proprietor of the store and left the money to be returned to the loser in case it was called for. The exact amount has not been ascertained by the Daily News, but the roll contained several bills of various denominations.

ONE-THIRD OF A MILLION

In the East Coast State Bank, Daytona Beach

I have this day, February 15, 1915, deposited $100.00 to the credit of the treasurers of the Chamber of Commerce of the Peninsula, and of the Palmetto Club of Daytona, to be expended in any manner these two bodies may see fit to help beautify the three cities, subject to the following

Conditions

There shall be used in new buildings, repairs to buildings, or retaining walls, within the city limits of Seabreeze, Daytona Beach and Daytona, one-third of a million cement blocks. They may be 8x8x16 in. or 8x8x20 in. or 8x8x24 in.

These sizes will allow any standard machine now in use by the different contractors to be used.

As the combined capacity of the five block-yards easily exceed by a third the number mentioned (one-third of a million), it is up to all to encourage this class of building. The time limit is exactly one year from this date.
